

Oak Hammock Marsh Interpretive Centre is celebrating National Aboriginal Day on June 18th & 19th 2015!

Come celebrate Aboriginal peoples, culture, and history at Oak Hammock Marsh Interpretive Centre. Choose from one of the following options.

Aboriginal Perspectives

OPTION A - $8.50 per student

Aboriginal Games (Gr. 2 & up)

From double ball to hoop and pole, Aboriginal games were and still are a fun way to learn important skills and lessons.

Stories with Joe McLellan (Gr. 2 & up)

Using his drum, humour, and tons of enthusiasm, children's author Joe McLellan will delight you with tales from his newest book Nikik and Wapus Save the People.

Bannock & Tea (Gr. 3 & up)

A taste of history: Discover the yummy treats nature has to offer. Make your own bannock and sample a wild jam and tea made from wetland plants!

OPTION B - $7.50 per student

Aboriginal Games (Gr. 1 & up)

From double ball to hoop and pole, Aboriginal games were and still are a fun way to learn important skills and lessons.

Stories with Joe McLellan (Gr. 1 & up)

Using his drum, humour, and loads of enthusiasm, children's author Joe McLellan will delight you with tales of from his newest book Nikik and Wapus Save the People.

Animal Teachers (Gr. 1 to 6)

Animals can be great teachers! Students will learn from turtle, owl and other animals through various activities.

For more information or to book programs:
Call 204-467-3299 or Email: ohmicbookings@ducks.ca

